Editorial Note for European Journal of Zoological Research

I am pleased to mention that during the year 2019, all issues of volume 7 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

European Journal of Zoological Research during this year also brought out the 10th International Conference on Biodiversity and Conservation with 25 abstracts.

With an Impact factor of 0.72 EJZR articles have been indexed and archived in EBSCO, Publon, RefSeek, Hamdard University.

During the calendar year 2019, EJZR received a total of 50 papers, out of which 20 articles (70%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process.

During 2019 around 10 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the Volume 7 published during the year 2019, a total of 2 articles were published. A total of 280 research scientists from all over the world reviewed articles published in volumes. Average publication lag time of an article was further reduced to 2-3 weeks.

During the calendar year 2019, a total of 6 Editors, 15 Reviewers joined the board of EJZR and contributed their invaluable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Felipe Polivanov Ottoni during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, Semra Benzer in bringing out issues of EJZR in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of EJZR, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of EJZR and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 8 of EJZR in scheduled time.
